x2 Connect partner program: training requirements

Welcome to the x2 Connect Bosch Video Partner Program. Connecting with the right partners is key to unlocking business success. Bosch helps system integrators like you grow your business, embrace sustainability, and support predictive solutions. x2 Connect is a tiered program: Be our partner and reach Silver, Gold and Platinum levels.

The trainings below can help your team understand and better utilize our systems. Together, through the Bosch x2 Connect Partner Program, let's explore the path of learning.

In order to reach the next partner level, we request our partners to fulfill the relevant training requirements within 6 month after reaching a next level.
